PING® TOUR NEWS

World #1
Lee Westwood
headlines the field at the WGC-Accenture Match Play, which features seven PING pros. See preview next page.

SCOTTSDALE PUTTER WINS FOR 7TH TIME

The winner of Sunday's European Tour event in India rolled in one long putt after another. In his hands was the Scottsdale Series Anser 2 model. Also in his bag: an i15 driver and i15 irons.

It is the seventh tournament won with the new Scottsdale. A gold-plated version will be added to PING's Gold Putter Vault.

PING SHOT OF THE WEEK

PING headquarters had a special guest visitor last week. The Claret Jug, on loan from reigning British Open champion and PING Pro Louis Oosthuizen, stopped by our Gold Putter Vault and made the rounds for pictures with employees.

I.K. KIM TIES COURSE RECORD

PING Pro In-Kyung Kim tied a course record with a 9-under 63 in the first round of the Honda LPGA Thailand. In her bag were S56 irons, the same model she used to win the Lorena Ochoa Invitational last fall. Kim contended late into the final round of the Honda and tied for third.

Seven PING pros competing in premier world match play event

Lee Westwood is one of seven PING pros heading to the Ritz-Carlton GC near Tucson for the WGC-Accenture Match Play Championship, starting Wednesday. The PING roster includes 18th-ranked Hunter Mahan and Farmers winner Bubba Watson

PING pros are #1 on the PGA Tour money list, in driving distance, and world ranking

(19), making his first appearance in the event. Also contending will be Louis Oosthuizen (20), who won in January, Miguel Angel Jimenez (23), Mark Wilson (51), twice a winner in 2011, and Heath Slocum (60).
