PING

Hunter Mahan, Bubba Watson and Mark Wilson all advanced to the third round of the FedExCup playoffs. See recap next page.

PING PUTTERS WIN FOR 19TH TIME IN 2011

A PING G5i Craze-E belly putter was used in winning the Deutsche Bank Championship. It was that model's second win of the year and the 19th title won worldwide with a PING putter in 2011.

The win total includes two each from Lee Westwood, Bubba Watson and Mark Wilson. A gold-plated replica of every winning putter will be added to the PING Gold Putter Vault.

PING
SHOT OF THE WEEK

Proving he knows something about long putts in addition to long drives, Bubba Watson drained an eagle putt of more than 53 feet on the 72nd hole Monday, bringing a raucous gallery to its feet at the Deutsche Bank Championship.

PING pros positioned inside top 20 for next round of playoffs

With a final-round 66 at the Deutsche Bank Championship, Hunter Mahan posted one of the lowest rounds of the day and appears in great form for the next playoff event, the BMW Championship near Chicago, Sept. 15.

Bubba averaged 357.5 yards in the 3rd round with his G20 driver.

Mahan, who moved up to 18th place in FedEx Cup points, is one of three PING pros inside the top 20. Bubba Watson is 12th, and Mark Wilson 17th.

The top 30 points leaders after the BMW advance to The Tour Championship.
