PING® TOUR NEWS

Hunter Mahan fired a 66 on Sunday, the low round of the day, to finish solo second. The AT&T winner played PING irons and wedges. See recap on next page.

OOSTHUIZEN'S U.S. DEBUT

PING Pro Louis Oosthuizen makes his 2011 PGA Tour debut this week at the Northern Trust Open in California.

The reigning British Open champion has already notched a win in 2011 at the Africa Open in his native South Africa on January 9th. This is the first year Oosthuizen has exempt status on the PGA Tour and he plans to divide his time equally between the U.S. and Europe.

PING
SHOT OF THE WEEK

In only his fourth PGA Tour event as a pro, PING rookie Zack Miller earned his first top 10, tying for ninth at the AT&T on the strength of 12 birdies over the weekend. His third-round 6-under 66 featured nine birdies in his first 15 holes.
