PING® TOUR NEWS

PING Pro Daniel Chopra's third-round course-record 61 sparked his Nationwide Tour win. See recap next page.

PING PRO BILL LUNDE #1 IN KODAK CHALLENGE

Bill Lunde took over 1st place in the Kodak Challenge this week with a birdie on the 17th hole at the TPC San Antonio during the Valero Texas Open. Players must play at least 18 of the 30 Kodak Challenge holes over the season to be eligible. The player with the lowest cumulative score relative to par on his best 18 holes at season's end wins $1 million. Lunde is 8 under after nine holes.

In-Kyung Kim won the Lorena Ochoa Invitational last fall in Guadalajara, Mexico, and promptly donated over $100,000, half her winnings, to Ochoa's foundation. Last week both PING pros visited La Barranca, the school that received I.K.'s funding. Kim was surprised to find a classroom had been dedicated in her name.

Chopra's sizzling round keys Nationwide win; 16th for S56 iron

Sparked by a course record and personal best 9-under 61 in the third round, PING Pro Daniel Chopra won the Fresh Express Classic at TPC Stonebrae near San Francisco on Sunday. His 61 on Saturday featured six birdies and two eagles, giving him a 1-stroke 54-hole lead. Thick fog rolled in overnight, causing cancellation of the final round after a few holes were played. Chopra was declared the winner of his third title on the Nationwide Tour. He also has two PGA Tour wins. "Golf is a game of momentum," Chopra said. "And now I've got some."
