

MONDAY
OCT. 31, 2011

TOUR NEWS

PING[®]

Daniel Chopra regained his PGA Tour card, helped by a course-record 62. See recap next page.

CALCAVECCHIA IN CLOSE PURSUIT OF POINTS TITLE

Currently second in Charles Schwab Cup points, Mark Calcavecchia can win the Champions Tour points race under two scenarios at this week's Charles Schwab Cup Championship in San Francisco.

Calc wins the title if he finishes 1st and the points leader finishes in a two-way tie for 2nd or worse. He can also win with a runner-up finish if the leader does no better than a two-way tie for 12th or worse.

PING SHOT OF THE WEEK

Playing before a partisan crowd in his native Spain, Miguel Angel Jimenez gave his fans plenty to cheer about at the Andalucia Masters. He finished second by a shot, finishing at 5 under after rounds of 71-70-68-70 that included two eagles on Saturday. "The Mechanic" tees it up this week at the WGC-HSBC Champions.

DANIEL CHOPRA WHAT'S IN THE BAG

DRIVER: G20, 9.5°, TFC 169D Tour-X shaft, at 42.25", tipped .5"

IRONS: S56 2, 4-PW, True Temper Black Gold-x shafts, 1° strong, D2

WEDGES: Tour S Rustique, 50°, 58° Black Gold-x, Black color code

PUTTER: Anser2, 34.75", 20° lie, 4° loft

Consistent play brings Chopra back for eighth Tour season

Inside the top 25 to begin the week, Daniel Chopra wanted to leave no doubt that he would regain his PGA Tour card on Sunday. Sparked by a course-record 10-under 62 in the second round, he finished T3 at the Nationwide Tour Championship to assure him his card.

Chopra led the field in birdies with 21, including 10 in the second round.

His second round began with six straight birdies and featured 16 one-putts. For the week, he was #1 in putts per G.I.R. and in putts per round. The 37-year-old Swede played seven seasons on the PGA Tour from 2004-2010, winning twice. He has three Nationwide Tour titles.

THIS WEEK	CHAMPIONS TOUR	LPGA TOUR	WORLD GOLF
	Charles Schwab Cup Championship Nov. 3-6 TPC Harding Park San Francisco, Calif. PING pros in the field: Mark Calcavecchia	Mizuno Classic Nov. 4-6 Kintetsu Kashikojima CC Shima-shi, Mie, Japan PING pros in the field: I.K. Kim Azahara Munoz	WGC-HSBC Champions Nov. 3-6 Sheshan International CC Shanghai, China PING pros in the field: Hunter Mahan Miguel Angel Jimenez Tom Lewis Louis Oosthuizen Lee Westwood (left) Mark Wilson